

Unwanted calls should not take up my time nor heat up my phone line. We are a family of 5 and I have no patience for that kind of nonsense. If someone wants to leave themselves open for that, fine. That's their prerogative. It should have the option to choose not having those inconsiderate interruptions. Which I clearly Do Not. The law is a good and effective one. Thank you.